Dear Donn:

As requested, I am amending my recently submitted Financial Disclosure Statement as follows:

Part III. Dividends on various corporate stocks held for my account by A.G.Edwards & Sons were identified as A.G.Edwards & Sons under Part II-B since A.G.Edwards & Sons does not furnish a detailed listing of dividends from each corporation. In Part III the stocks were listed by each corporate name since the value of each corporate stock is readily determinable. Thus, assests generating income in Part II-B have been included.

Part V. The type of indebtedness should read "Mortgage on Rental Property".

Part VII. Reimbursements for travel expenses were received from The Associated General Contractors of America and The Tobacco Institute, each totaling $250 or more in 1988. These travel expenses were incurred in connection with speaking engagements to the aforementioned groups. Any other "reimbursements" were paid directly by the sponsoring organization to the provider of the services and would amount to ordinary and reasonable air and land transportation fares, plus any necessary food and lodging expenses incurred while away from home overnight.

With kindest regards, I am

Sincerely,

Bill Hefner
BILL HEFNER
Member of Congress

Attention: Office of Records and Registration

Dear Donn:

I have just received a letter from the Committee on Standards of Official Conduct advising that I inadvertently overlooked checking the appropriate space in the box regarding income from excepted trust holdings on page 2 of my Financial Disclosure form. The question in that box is:

> Do you, your spouse or dependent child receive income from or have a beneficial interest in a trust or other financial arrangement whose holdings were not reported because the trust is a "qualified blind trust" or other excepted trust?

The "No" space should have been checked in response to this question.

I regret the oversight and will appreciate your having my Financial Disclosure form corrected accordingly.

Warmest personal regards.

Sincerely,

Jerry Huckaby

Dear Donn:

In response to a letter I received from Chairman Dixon and Ranking Minority Member Myers of the Committee on Standards of Official Conduct, please let me clarify my Financial Disclosure Statement with respect to RMC Holdings listed on Schedule IIB. RMC represents a name change for the Rinker Materials Corporation. The reason that RMC does not appear under the category of Holdings is that it was sold during the reporting year and appears under Transactions under the name Rinker Materials.

I would note also that dividends were declared under both names during the reporting year.

Thank you for this opportunity to clarify my report.

With kind regards,

Sincerely,

HARRY JOHNSTON, M.C.

Re: Amendment of Financial Disclosure Statement for 1988

Dear Mr. Anderson:

As per a letter from the Committee on Standars of Official Conduct, I would like to amend my 1988 Financial Disclosure Statement.

I inadvertedly failed to check under Category III - HOLDINGS, the following question:

> Do you, your spouse or dependent child receive income from or have a beneficial interest in a trust or other financial arrangement whose holdings were not reported because the trust is a "qualified blind trust" or other excepted trust?

My answer to this question is, NO.

I will be most appreciative if you will add this statement to my Financial Disclosure Statement, and apologize for the oversight.

With every good wish, I am

Sincerely,

Walter B Jones

Dear Mr. Anderson:

Please note that I have omitted the apartment at Beekman Place on the 1988 Financial Disclosure Statement.

I did so because this residence is restricted solely to those occasions when Congressional responsibilities require me to be in Washington. I have not used this apartment for rental income since 1983 and according to the general guidelines of Title III Holdings "A personal residence would not be reported unless any part of the residence produces rental income".

Thank you for bringing this matter to my attention.

Sincerely,

Dear Chairman Dixon:

In response to your correspondence dated May 12, 1989, I am submitting this letter as an amendment to my Financial Disclosure Statement of 1988. Under Part IV of the Financial Disclosure Checklist, an explanation had been requested for four separate old holdings not listed as sales: Clayton Brown, Vacant Lot (Hopewell Twp., Beaver Co., Pa), National Pay Tele. The appended notice, dated July 1, 1986, has been submitted for your further review.

The Honorable Donnald K. Anderson
Clerk of the House

Washington, DC 20515

Dear Mr. Anderson:

In reponse to your Financial Disclosure Checklist - Form A requesting clarification of earned income, please be advised that of the $37,982.00 I received in honoraria in 1988, I kept less than the 1988 limit of $26,850.00 and donated the difference to charitable organizations.

Should the rules of the House call for, or should the Ethics Committee desire a specific listing of the charitable organizations to which I contributed and the amount of each contribution, I'd be pleased to submit such a list with copies of cancelled checks.

In addition, I would like to amend Section IV. - Transactions. Four securities were listed in Section II B. - Unearned Income, but were inadvertently omitted from Section IV. Please add the following transactions to those listed in Section IV:

MCI Communications	- bought	11/8/83	B
	- sold	6/9/88	B
	- bought	2/3/84	B
	- sold	6/10/88	B

LEWIS FAMILY TRUST

One-fourth interest in assets of trust created during parents lifetime. Elaine L. Lewis died on November 15, 1983. Edward R. Lewis died on May 13, 1988. No assets were distributed during 1988 except for a specific bequest by Elaine L. Lewis to an unrelated individual. A savings account was opened and the proceeds of a checking account were transferred to that savings account at Bank of San Bernardino during 1988. A copy of the relevant portions of the Federal estate tax return is attached. Assets that were not a part of the trust but were the separate property of Edward R. Lewis are also set forth in the Federal estate tax return. In accordance with the provisions of the Trust Agreement, the trust was divided into three trusts; therefore, the same assets are listed more than once with different values applicable to each trust.

INFORMATION AS TO QUESTION 12 OF PART 4:

Decedent and his predeceased wife, Elaine Lewis, established the Edward R. Lewis and Elaine L. Lewis Trust ("Lewis Trust") on January 15, 1983, a copy of which Trust Agreement is attached hereto. Pursuant to Article II of the Lewis Trust, it was divided into Trusts A-1, A-2, and B following Elaine's death on November 15, 1983, and these were funded with the assets as reflected in the Schedules of Assets, November 13, 1983, for each of said trusts prepared by Steve White, C.P.A., copies of said schedules are attached. The assets in Lewis Trust A-1 at the date of Decedent's death are reflected on Schedule G. The assets in Lewis Trust A-2 are Section 2044 property, and their values at the date of Decedent's death are reflected on Schedule F. The assets in each of the Lewis Trusts are reflected in the Schedules of Assets, May 13, 1988, prepared by Steve White, C.P.A., copies of these schedules are also attached. Trust B of the Lewis Trust held assets as to which Decedent held only a right to income (or principal if necessary according to an ascertainable standard--see paragraph B of Article 3). Therefore, said assets are not included in Decedent's taxable estate; however, their values are reflected in the schedules of assets prepared by Steve White.

INFORMATION AS TO QUESTION 13 OF PART 4:

Pursuant to paragraph A of Article 4, Edward E. Lewis and Elaine L. Lewis Trust dated January 15, 1983, Decedent held a general power of appointment over Trust A-1 and over accrued and undistributed income of Trust A-2. All assets of Trust A-1 are reported on Schedule G. All Assets of Trust A-2 are reported on Schedule F.
